

Phishing Attacks: Don't Take the Bait

What is Phishing

Phishing is a cyberattack where scammers pretend to be a trusted source to trick you into revealing sensitive information like passwords or credit card numbers.

How It Works

Email

Link

Fake website

User enters info

Attacker steals data

Red Flags

Urgent language

Suspicious links

Misspellings

Unknown sender

Real Examples

Bank email scam

Amazon login deception

Delivery scam notification

How to Protect Yourself

Check URLs

Don't click links

Use 2FA
(two-factor authentication)

Go directly to websites